Michael Rosen's Bear Hunt, Chocolate Cake & Bad Things

A brand-new interactive exhibition for Manchester!

Bear Hunt
Birthday parties
& school groups available!

Welcome to Autumn at Z-arts

This season we present a vibrant and diverse range of events and activities for children and families. Autumn begins with a mix of re-invented Shakespeare in Macbeth: Blood Will Have Blood, family dance show Sponge and a world of Animals where beatbox, rap and graffiti come together in the wonderfully titled Bouncing Cats and Boom Boom Pups.

We'll be going on a bear hunt from the 17th September through to December with the arrival of the brand-new to Manchester, interactive experience Bear Hunt, Chocolate Cake and Bad Things inspired by the writings of the much-loved author Michael Rosen. There will be plenty of activities themed around the experience to get stuck into; from the launch party on the 17th September to the poetry event in partnership with Manchester Literature Festival with special guest Michael Rosen to the story themed activity area, where families can take inspiration from his writing with a little creative guidance from Z-arts.

There's so much to recommend, please explore the brochure, check out our website or come in and see us, we're always happy to help!

Liz O'Neill, Chief Executive/Artistic Director

Saturday 24 September
Macbeth: Blood Will Have Blood

Presented by Contender Charlie, China Plate and Warwick Arts
2.30pm
£6 - £12
Running Time: 55 mins

Re-invented for 9-13 years-olds, this new production of Macbeth – Blood Will Have Blood is an unforgettable introduction to Shakespeare's shocking story of ambition, greed and the abuse of power.

Summoned by the arrival of the audience, a macabre Porter leads us into the dark heart of Shakespeare's play, offering young audiences (and their families) a glimpse of life under Scotland's tyrant King.

"I cannot but imagine that Shakespeare himself would have loved this interpretation and that the visceral, earthy and mischievous re-telling of his story would have delighted him." – Steve Hawthorne, InSuffolk Review

Tuesday 25 October
The Colour of Me

Presented by Wiggle Dance
11am & 2.30pm
£6 - £12
Running Time: 45 mins

Join us in a magical world of colour. Can you feel the excitement of the deep blue sea, the green peacefulness of nature, or bravely go where no child has ever been... inside an orange?

But do watch out for red, who is sometimes very cross...

Come and experience the beautiful rainbow of emotions that lives inside each and every one of us. What colour are you today? With live music and projection this interactive dance theatre performance promises to delight, tickle and inspire young audiences.

"An amazing experience using our imagination and feeling through a colourful show" – Audience Member

Thursday 29 September
Sponge

Commissioned and produced by Big Imaginations. Co-commissioned by Spark Arts for children.
1pm
£6 - £12
Running Time: 45 mins

Roll, squeeze and pop yourself through a new malleable kind of family dance show, set to a 1970s-influenced score, perfect for babies, young children and families.

Sponge is about all things spongy, a child's ability to soak information up like a sponge and the squishy, squashy texture that fascinates children and adults alike.

"Fascinating and amazing, I loved all the colours and the dancing, I couldn't get my children to leave. More sponge please!" – Rada, mum to Jugeet and Juspeet aged 14 months

Saturday 19 November
Bouncing Cats and Boom Boom Pups

Commissioned by Southbank and supported by The Place, produced by Artstrust productions.
11am & 2.30pm
£6 - £12
Running Time: 55 mins

Journey into a world of AnimaLand where beatbox, rap and graffiti come together.

This immersive, high-energy performance features spoken-word artist Maxwell Golden and graffiti artist Mr Dane. Set within a purpose-built graffiti installation, an original children's book is brought to life and interwoven with freestyle hip-hop improvisation. The Bouncing Cats and Boom Boom Pups need your help as they navigate AnimaLand so audience beatboxing and participation is required.

"It is brilliant, fresh and ready to stir the Land of children's performance" – Gemma Kiddy - The Sparks Arts for Children

Saturday 1 October Emergency 2016

Presented by Word of Warning
12-10pm, Free unticketed

A free day out for the curious. Manchester's manic micro-marathon of the bizarre + the beautiful returns for its 17th outing - from atrium to theatre, store-cupboard to stairwell, 20+ live works in a non-stop performance takeover. From noon, dip in and out of ongoing performances or join us in the evening for some sit-down shows.

Your chance to sample the different - all for free. This event is not ticketed, just turn up on Saturday and enjoy. Please note this is primarily an adult event and may contain content not suitable for the under 18s. Details online from 19 Sep at emergencycmcr.org.

Wednesday 19 – Saturday 22 October The Drowsy Chaperone

Presented by South Manchester AOS
7.30pm Wednesday - Friday
2pm & 7pm Saturday £11-£14

This show-within-a-show begins when a musical theatre obsessive imagines performers coming to life in his shabby apartment whilst he plays his favourite cast album, a 1928 hit show called "The Drowsy Chaperone." Throughout the performance the musical bursts to life around him as he continuously brings the audience in and out of the fantasy. Be instantly immersed in the glamorous, hilarious tale of a 1920's celebrity bride on her uproarious wedding day, complete with thrills and surprises that take both the cast and the audience soaring into the rafters.
