

This is Z-arts

This is the Z-arts entrance.

When you walk up the stairs, you arrive at our box office. This is where you will be registered for the exhibition and where you can find out more information.

This is the entrance to the exhibition
'A World Inside a Book: Gruffalos, Dragons and Other Creatures'.

This is the space you will first visit when you go through the entrance door.

When it's time to go inside, you will go through the purple door into Charlie Cook's room.

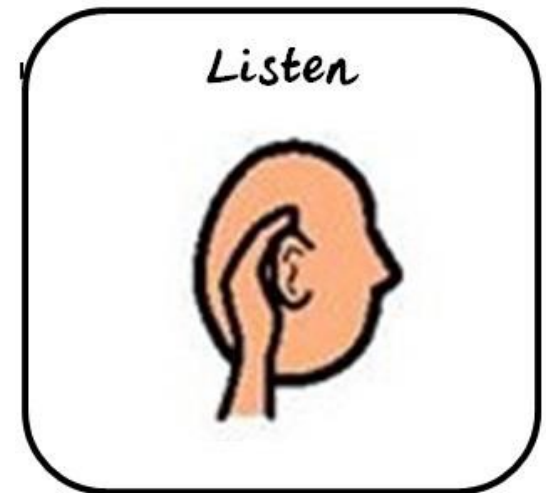

A Story-explorer will read a story to you.
The Story-explorer could be the person in the picture or someone else.

Then it's time to explore the exhibition.

You will be able to hear some sound effects

Inside the exhibition, you will find lots of stories and characters.

You can dress up.

And play.

When you hear the clock chime,
it is time to finish.

Ear defenders

There are ear defenders available for all ages and in all sizes.

Please speak to our Box Office for more details or to request a set.

Accessible toilets

There are accessible toilets at Z-arts. Ask a member of staff for the nearest one.

Makaton keyring

Staff have a keyring with laminated Makaton cards attached. The Makaton cards have simple images and symbols that you can use to help communicate with our staff. Your children may be familiar with these from home or school.

Z-café visual menu

There is a printed menu with pictures and large print available at Z-café. You can take this to your table if you would like to use it. Ask a member of the Z-café staff for more information.

Accessible cutlery

Ask our Z-café staff for accessible cutlery. The cutlery has large easy grip, latex-free rubber handles. The spoon and fork have bendable shafts that bend for left or right handed use.